Forecast For Scotland
Issued by Met Office Aberdeen
at 0400 on Friday 12 Mar 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Cold and breezy with scattered showers, wintry on high ground.

Today:
Rather cold and breezy with scattered showers, although more showers frequent across central and northwestern areas with a chance of hail and thunder. Best of the drier and brightest weather in the northeast.

Tonight:
Outbreaks of rain spreading from the west during this evening, turning somewhat drier later in the night. Far north mainland mainly dry, icy patches. Shetland windy with showers.

Saturday:
Overnight cloud and rain soon clearing away then bright. Still a few showers across the west and Northern Isles, drier elsewhere. Rather cold.

Outlook for Sunday to Tuesday:
Rain across the southwest for a time on Sunday, drier elsewhere with just a few showers. Mainly dry Monday. Some rain Monday night then dry on Tuesday.

(C) Crown Copyright 2021. Published by the Met Office.